These Prices (deduced upon the supposition that the dividends on the different Stocks are all payable at the same time) must be subject to some variation in favour of those Stocks upon which the Dividends soonest become due: for instance, a person making a purchase in September, had better buy into the new 3 per cents at 93 than into the 2½ per cents at 77½, because the Dividends on the former Stock become due in October, while those on the latter will not become due until the January following.—Nor must it be forgotten, that the possibility of a Reduction of Interest in some of these Securities, and of the paying off of others, considerably affects their Prices in the Market.

The following Table, constructed upon philosophical considerations of the attraction of the Sun and Moon, in their several positions respecting the earth, and confirmed by experience of many years' actual observations, will in very few instances be found to fail.

1. When there has been no particular storm about the time of the Spring equinox (March 21),—if a storm arise from the east on or before that day, or if a storm from any point of the compass arise near a week after the equinox, then, in either of these cases the succeeding summer is generally DRY, four times in five.
2. But if a storm arise from the S. W. or W. S. W. on or just before the Spring equinox, then the Summer following is generally WET, five times in six.

the Opera so much sooner than I thought. I shall

- 21 Tuesday ~~~~ I look at the agitate future it is no el la melle. Immense labour and what dreadful risk - to think that in these hours the work of so many days and nights will be perfect and perhaps complete - Release at the theatre. They are nearly all perfect and anxious the Opera should be produced as soon as possible.

Kimball, Mr. Macfarlane, Lillie - and others who was nearly killed by a Turkish Cart running over him in the street - was there. Joachim is going to play at the first concert. The more I advance, the more there seems still to be done - At times I really lose courage - but I am determined not to be beaten and tho' poorly and out of spirits - I will go on. George is always so good and helping me when I can.
- 25 Saturday ~~~~ I am also very much pleased with Harrison G. at the New Cowley. A. Jackson & James are not habitues - since our visits to Green & Lablache - The Chappell are encouraging. The opinions of Musical Men much in favor of what they saw and heard of the first of my Opera. Decision to give up all my efforts until the Opera is completed. Osborne, Ho.
- 26 Sunday ~~~~ Terminated at last the finale of Act 2. No 16 which was very hard to finish - with so very little time for consideration. - 27 Monday Finished No. 17 (Harrison's Ballad) and 18, the Little Trio in the 3^d Act. The Opera announced in the Times. 8 Monday. Singular concert. Immense success of Hallé in Hummel's Terzetto. The room not very full. Miss Davis gone back to Brighton, without even an apology for not paying her dues.
- 28 Tuesday Performed No. 20 (Hardy's Song - Eddy Marston's). Irish Band Rehearsal of the 1st and 2^d. Had to take place on Thursday next. Play is the sketch of my brochure to Davidson at Chappell's. Probably, with some modifications suggested by Samuel to him. Myself, Wright.
- 29 Wednesday Sitting off in the receipts at Covent Garden. The usual routine - Work from morning to night, a hurried breakfast and dinner. Capt. & Mr. Compton. Mr. Heaton (Harrison's man) at Brighton (-) Mellon - Horton's beautiful copy of my Opera. West. E. Murray. Miss McLean - a fine girl but a very indifferent musician. Geo. Macfarlane - Wallace resolved to have his Opera performed this
- 30 Thursday Finished No. 19, a long chorus and concluded. Rehearsal under Mellon's direction. All the tempo's much too fast. No Miss Pyne - who was too ill to come. The Band received several of the pieces very favorably, and every thing considered I ought to be satisfied. Le. Ab. mi. me. Ge. in ch. go. Re. Solo.
- 31 Friday Finished a little Extract after the finale of 2^d Act, and a few Bars Introduction to Hunting Rhyme. The pieces which seemed to take most were the Duet in first Act (Haigh & Sautley) the Finale of 1st Act and Sautley's Scene. The Hoastman Chorus (Finale 2^d Act) was very imperfect yet. Miss McLean knew hardly anything of her part. Sautley and myself.
- 1 Saturday FEBRUARY. Second Band Rehearsal to which I did not go - but which according to Arthur Chappell went infinitely better than the first. Alterations in the brochure. Alice to remain here until after the 1st performance of my Opera. Simon Pyne still to unroll to attend the Rehearsals.
- 2 Sunday Prattle, Barrett House, Hill Lodge expressed themselves very much pleased with the Opera - and the members of the Orchestra - seen ready to like the Music. Form and Arthur Chappell came this morning. Looked at it. Bales. - Scored the great part of No. 21 - another troublesome piece - which is not to be even noticed - as it is all action and noise - and there can be no music great effect.
